

PEACE RIVER ADVENTURE!

A weekend of fossil hunting & camping on the beautiful Peace River in Zolfo Springs!

APRIL 25 & 26, 2020

The Peace River Adventure is an exciting family event and the only TBFC trip when we invite non-members to join us. This is the perfect opportunity to introduce TBFC to your friends and neighbors. The river is at its shallowest point and accessible by hunters of all ages and abilities. It's the perfect trip for both the new and seasoned hunter. Don't miss it!

FOSSIL HUNTING

All hunters meet at the Pioneer Park campground's main parking lot which is located at the NW Intersection of US 17 & SR 64 in Zolfo Springs.

SCREEN WASHERS & SNORKELERS:

Saturday - 9:00AM: Meet Mike Searle & Fred Hendershot. Bring your own equipment and vehicle. We will be hunting at Thousand Trails and Brownsville. You'll need a shovel, fossil screen, & durable shoes (Canoes are fun, but not necessary). There is a $2 per car fee at Brownsville, please have cash.

If you would like to hunt fossils at Thousand Trails, either day, you must stay at that campground.

Sunday - 8:30AM: Travel with Fred Hendershot and Marlin Swikert to the Gardner Boat Ramp. Meet at the Pioneer Park campgrounds main parking lot. Bring your vehicle to make the 20 minute drive to the site.

BARBEQUE DINNER

Saturday: Served from 4:00PM until 5:00PM in the Nickerson Ulrich Building at Pioneer Park. Barbeque dinner consists of: pork & beef, barbeque beans, cole slaw, roll, ice tea & soda. The dinners offer a good portion and you'll receive one free raffle ticket with each dinner purchased!

AUCTION TO BENEFIT TBFC SCHOLARSHIPS

Saturday - 5:30PM - 6:30PM in the Nickerson Ulrich Building.
Please Don't forget to bring donations to the auction!
